ITEMS OF INTEREST.

B. F. Booth came over from Brigham Wednesday.

J. C. Wheelon is still confined at home with the grip.

Walter P. Eaton is just getting around again after a few days attack of the grip.

Ben F. Ritter came over from Logan Monday in the interests of Ritter Bros. Drug Store here.

L. T. Brooks and H. B. Shannon, representatives of Armour & Co., were in Garland on business Wednesday.

In the district court Friday last the case of Wilbur Wyatt vs. Jas. Carter over the ownership of a horse, was decided in favor of the plaintiff, Mr. Wyatt.

It will not cost you a cent to try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and they are excellent for stomach troubles and constipation. Get a trial box at Ritter Bros. Drug Store.

M. J. Richards and W. H. Parke were in town Monday negotiating with the Utah Sugar Company to furnish the town of Fielding with electric accommodations.

To-night is the eventful Relief Society social at the Amusement Hall. You will miss a good social time, lots of good picnic, an excellent program and the dance of the season if you fail to attend. A splendid time is anticipated and the affair will be remembered in our next issue. The social will commence at 8 o'clock p. m.

Wanted:—A correspondent to send us a few items weekly from each of the following places:—Jewerville, Riverside, Elwood, Ft. Lookout, Thatcher, Penrose, Washville, Collinston, Bear River City, Tremont and other surrounding places. Your town ought to be represented in this paper. Why not interest yourself in telling us what is doing? We will send the paper free to all correspondents and give you some paper and envelopes if you will act. Write us a letter for publication and help us build up the Great Bear River Valley.

Cash, Credit and Collections.

We copy the following from the Dry Goods Reporter, Chicago, an interesting story on cash, credit and collections written by "The Tramp":—

The average merchant in the average town hasn't any system—collecting system—he needs Peruna.

He charges this and that to Jack and Jill, and lets them take their own sweet time in paying for it.

They linger along three months, six months or maybe a year, and then come in and pay $25 or $50 on account with the statement that that's all they can spare today.

Mr. Merchant takes their money, thanks them, and longs for the balance due.

But when it comes to asking this Jack and Jill for it, his nerve fails him, and out they go.

Why, the big store takes ten chances in the credit business where the little merchant takes one, and yet doesn't lose out little in bad accounts.

Two years ago last Spring I was sitting in front of the Reporter office, with my back up against the wall, taking the sun.

A cob pipe was conveying me to my happy home, and I was feeling peacefully Q. T., when a stranger walked up and asked: "Are you The Tramp?"

"That's me," says I.

"You look the part," says he, "and I want to get some of your ideas on how to change from credit to cash. I'm tired of doing a credit business, and want to write a letter to my customers telling them that I'm going to change, and I'd like for you to tell me how to do it."

"What's your name?" I asked.

"Paul Jones, Arrowsmith, Illinois."

"How big is the town?"

"About 2,700 inhabitants."
